

Here's the Info You Requested on Your Elite Challenge:

Thank you again for registering for an American Airlines AAdvantage elite Challenge. To help you meet your goal, we are resending information on completing the Challenge. Additionally, if you wish to have a receipt of the amount you were charged to register, please follow these steps:

1. Go to <https://www.refunds.aa.com/>
2. Locate the form "Request a Refund or Receipt"
3. In the field for "Ticket Number" input the MSR number I provided to you today
4. Input your Last Name in the next field
5. Select "Go" and the amount you paid is displayed

Now here are some tips to help you succeed:

- Plan your qualifying flights to meet your goal within the 3-month time frame we discussed. Travel outside this time frame will not qualify toward your Challenge.
- Be sure to fly on an eligible carrier. Points earned on qualifying flights on American Airlines, American Eagle, the AmericanConnection[®] carrier, British Airways, Iberia, Japan Airlines and Qantas (including eligible codeshare flights marketed by these carriers) count toward your Challenge.
- If you upgrade, please keep in mind that points earned are based on the fare and booking code purchased, not the cabin in which you travel.
- Learn more about point accrual and qualifying fares for each airline:
 - American Airlines
 - British Airways
 - Iberia
 - Japan
 - Qantas
- How can you determine what booking code is used for the fare you're purchasing? Simply ask the booking agent, whether that's your travel agent, corporate travel planner or AA Reservations representative. Or, even better, when you book your flights on AA.com, the Flight Summary screen displays the booking code in the same column as the cabin booked.
- Remember that the charge for your Challenge is nonrefundable -- even if circumstances beyond anyone's control prevent you from meeting the goal.

A Challenge is intended for members who are in a hurry to get to the elite level they desire and begin enjoying their benefits. Think of it as a shortcut to the status you would probably earn on your own during the normal qualification period. Assuming you're successful, please be prepared to meet the normal criteria when it comes time to requalify for your status, since we offer limited opportunities to earn status via a Challenge. We wish you every success in completing this Challenge.
